Curacao's LOK Submitted to Parliament

The Minister of Finance is pleased to announce that the eagerly awaited National Ordinance for Games of Chance (LOK) has been officially submitted to Parliament.

In a statement, Minister Silvania expressed enthusiasm about this crucial development, stating, "We are very happy to reach this final stage. The submission of the LOK to Parliament is not just a procedural step, but a leap towards transformative progress."

The Minister further emphasizes that the LOK is a result of extensive consultations and collaborative efforts across the entire online gambling industry. This inclusive approach ensures that the new legislation is well-rounded, workable and caters to the diverse needs of all current and future stakeholders, while bringing unprecedented revenue and employment opportunities to the country of Curacao.

The Ministry of Finance extends its gratitude to everyone who has contributed to this pivotal initiative and looks forward to the positive changes that 2024 will bring under this new legislative framework.
